Over 500 Miles of Concrete Highways in a Single County!

Wayne county, Michigan, (Detroit) has over 500 miles of concrete highways, with pavements from eighteen to eighty feet wide.

Nineteen years ago, this county built its first stretch of concrete road. Year after year, the Board of County Road Commissioners has continued building concrete highways, to complete a road system planned in 1906.

Many of the older pavements have been widened. Some have been torn up to make way for wider pavements at a different grade—but no concrete pavement has worn out!

No wonder Wayne County keeps on building concrete roads!

REPUBLICANS ASK $4,000,000 FUND

BY RAYMOND CLAPPER.

Washington, August 1.—(United News.)—The republican national committee will need about $4,000,000 for the Hoover-Curtis campaign. National Chairman work estimated today.

This is about one-third more than the $3,000,000 spent by the national committee in the 1924 Coolidge campaign, and it figures out about 25 cents per vote cast for the republican candidate. The total set for this campaign is approximately the same as for the Harding campaign in 1920.

Republican leaders do not regard this as an exorbitant sum considering they have an extremely active campaign to go through. Democrats have announced no limit on what they expect to spend.

Negro Division Organized.

Chairman Work also announced creation of a colored voters division to conduct the Hoover-Curtis campaign among negroes throughout the country. Main headquarters will be set up in the Barr building here, where the national committee officers are. Branches may be established in New York and Chicago. The large negro voting population in New York and in middle western states like Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Missouri, will be organized intensively.

In the border and southern states the republican organization will work more cautiously with the negroes, there being a good deal of division as to whether this is not the time to put the party organization on a lily white basis in some southern states.

John R. Hawkins, of Washington, D. C., who succeeded Hoover's nomination at Kansas City, is chairman of negro activity.

Drive Begins Soon.

The republican campaign fund drive is about to begin. Some contributions have come in by mail and these will be reported to congress in an official report within a day or two. The party treasurer, J. R. Nutt, of Cleveland, was here today conferring with Chairman Work, Jeremiah Milbank, eastern treasurer, and other officials of the national committee, on finances.

Chairman Work, after studying the needs and requirements of the various bureaus of the republican organization has concluded that the legitimate expenditures of the campaign will be about four million dollars. Committee headquarters announced formally.

This money represents what is expected to go formally through the hands of the republican national committee. About one-fourth of the committee's funds was dealt out to state, senatorial and congressional committees in the last campaign, but in view of the fact that a fight in the south is being urged, a larger slice may have to be set aside for state and local politicians this time.

The remainder of the national committee fund usually is scattered over a dozen or so forms of activity. Probably a third of it goes for publicity and speakers. Other expenditures are for special bureaus for labor, women, negroes, service men, foreign born voters, farmers, commercial travelers, investigators, clerical help and general headquarters office expenses.

No Limit By Law.

Nobody knows how much has been spent so far in past campaigns or how much will be spent that way this time. That large sum is so spent is generally recognized, but the money is put up on the side by individuals and is not contributed to the national committee, but to individuals who are to undertake certain work. The money is thereby made effective in the campaign, but not having passed through the hands of a committee it does not have to be accounted for under law.

Because of the large sums thus spent, and the additional sums spent in state and county campaigns on local candidates, which react for the general good of the "ticket," accurate estimates of the total sums actually spent in presidential campaigns never have been obtained.

The law places no limit on the amount that may be spent in a presidential campaign. It only requires that political organizations handling campaign funds report receipts and disbursements.

SAY 380 SANDINO MEN HAVE QUIT IN THE PAST WEEK

Washington, August 1.—(AP)—Rear Admiral David F. Sellers, commander of the special squadron in Nicaraguan waters, has advised the navy department that 380 Sandino followers have surrendered to marines in Nicaragua since July 23.

These are in addition to those previously reported surrendered and the navy department estimated that approximately 1,000 men had given up in the past few weeks.

Decatur Schools To Delay Opening Until October 2

Decatur, Ga., August 1.—(Special.)

Pretty tough on the kids of Decatur, but they won't seem to show it. They won't be able to get back to school for the fall term this year until October 2—a whole two weeks extra for their vacation.

Such was the announcement Wednesday of Charles D. McKinney, chairman of the board of education, who asserted that the progress of the building program for the Decatur schools is such that they will not be ready to take care of the thousands of children until October 2, this year.

Construction now under way—in the form of numerous additions to senior and junior high schools as well as several grammar schools—will not be completed until the latter part of September, Mr. McKinney said.

And, though it's a long way off, the kids will have to pay back the extra two weeks out of their 1929 vacation. In other words, schools in Decatur will run an extra fortnight into the summer months, Mr. McKinney said. Schools of DeKalb county, however, will resume September 10. It was learned from W. M. Rainey, county school superintendent. The new combination grammar-high school at Fanninville, in the southwestern part of the county, will be in operation this year.

The other new combination school at Emory, however, will not be completed in time for attendance this autumn. Students who intended to attend this school will use the same building on Emory university campus that they attended in previous years.

ROBINSON TO INVITE SMITH TO ARKANSAS

Hot Springs, August 1.—(AP)—The possibility that Governor Alfred E.

Smith will visit Arkansas before the national election has been strengthened by an announcement from his running-mate, Senator Joe T. Robinson, that he probably will invite the governor to this state. When the New York executive notified a local committee that he could not be present at Senator Robinson's notification here, August 30, he said he would visit Arkansas later if the senator would invite him.

Senator Robinson said a visit from the standardbearer might be possible after Governor Smith's notification and before he enters his active campaign, but added there were no definite plans for such an arrangement.

CLAXTON MAN DIES
OF KNIFE WOUND

Claxton, Ga., August 1.—(AP)—G. W. Weathers, well-known turpentine operator here, died early today from stab wounds he received last night in a fight with Will A. Strickland, a watchman at a local tobacco warehouse, over the alleged improper parking of his automobile in front of the warehouse.

Strickland fled after Weathers had fallen fatally injured and no trace of him has been found today.

Witnesses said the altercation began when Strickland remonstrated with Weathers for parking his machine in front of the warehouse at a point prohibited by the owners of the structure. Heated words were followed by an exchange of blows, during which Strickland was said to have drawn a knife and stabbed his antagonist.

Weathers, who was said to have been unarmed, was stabbed once over the heart, once in the stomach and twice under the arms and was removed immediately to his home, where three physicians made unsuccessful efforts to save his life.

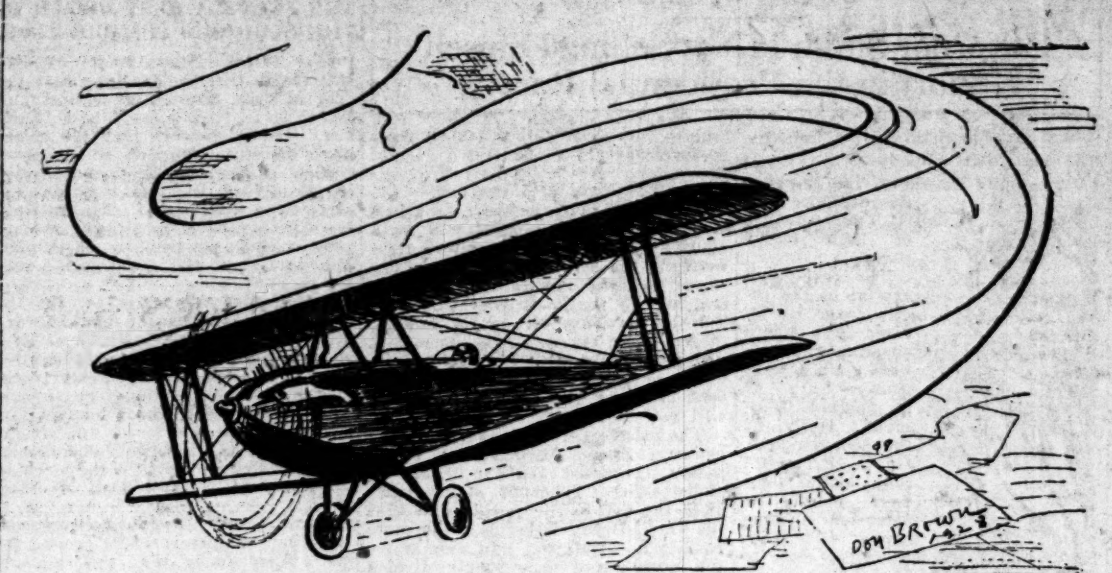

The dead man was a son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Weathers, and besides them is survived by a wife and several children.

Bogus Broker's
Legal Troubles
Mounting Fast

Richmond, Va., August 1.—(AP)—Trouble continued to increase today for Bernard Champayne, of Ticonderoga, N. Y., whom police charge with obtaining $15,000 from Mrs. B. P. Fields, of Richmond, by representing himself as a "Wall street man" and heir to millions.

Champayne was brought into police court today to answer charges of being a fugitive from justice in Canton, Ohio, where he is alleged to be married and to have several children. In the meantime Omaha police wired a request for his description, similar requests having already been received from Detroit, Mich., and Griffin, Ga. The Canton charges were continued August 30, when Champayne will also face charges preferred by police here.

Local police quote Champayne as saying he posed as the heir to an $80,000,000 estate, spent money lavishly and became engaged to daughter of Mrs. Fields, the woman from whom he is alleged to have obtained the $15,000 for an "investment." An automobile purchased here was registered by Champayne in the name of Mrs. Lucille Baker, Walter W. Baker, Jr., heir to the Baker chocolate fortune was the alias used by Champayne, police said.

Sense of Rhythm
Aviator's Aid
War Pilot Informs Student

"Try to get the big rhythm of things and cut out the jerky, snappy stuff." Don Brown's drawing shows what the pilot meant by rhythm in handling the plane.

BY DON BROWN.
(Copyright, 1928, in All Countries by North American Newspaper Alliance.)
Newark-Elizabeth Airport, August 1.—When I came out here to learn to fly and write and draw my experience for The Constitution, I decided to keep the real purpose of my training under my hat as far as the airport people were concerned.

I imagined that some of the hard-boiled pilots might look suspiciously on a student afflicted with artistic or literary inclinations.

I didn't know then that Koehl, the German pilot of the Bremen, spends his spare time painting landscapes. Today, in the air on a training flight, my instructor, Bill Hughes, complained through the earphones of the heaviness of my touch on the control stick.

"Try to be more rhythmic," he said. "Everything in flying is rhythmic. Try to get the big rhythm of things and cut out the little jerky, snappy stuff."

That phrase "Try to get the big rhythm of things" astonished me. The last time I heard it was from a distinguished American artist who taught drawing at the Art Students' League in New York. I remembered when I started to draw in his class with a snappy, tricky style, the artist urged me on to a larger and more rhythmic technique.

In a Paris art school, I heard the same thing expressed as "Seek the grand lines."

"No Wrestling Match."

And today when I tried to jerk the plane snarling into a bank and a turn, Bill howled mournfully through the earphones and the advice about rhythmic flying in my mind.

After this lesson, I was sitting on the running board of a car, making a drawing of a plane on the ground when Bill happened along.

"I see you 'raw,'" he said. "You ought to develop a good light touch on the stick. If you have a sense of rhythm, it can teach you to fly much more easily."

"I had a student last year who was making beautiful, smooth turns after three or four hours in the air. One day when we landed after he had been doing some wonderful flying I asked him, 'What kind of a musical instrument are you playing?' He was astonished and said, 'Why, I play a violin. But how in the world did you know?'"

These questions, these qualities are not all that is necessary by any means, Bill says. There is no doubt that a flier must be physically sensitive and very much alert, but he must also have a strong control over these sensibilities. This combination of good qualities is

FARMERS' SOCIETY
MEETS AT MACON

Macon, Ga., August 1.—(AP)—With a program filled with prominent speakers, whose subjects relate to the progress of Georgia agriculture and of state improvement, the 824 annual convention of the Georgia State Agricultural society opened here today, to continue for two days.

Judge Peter D. McElm, of Savannah, president, presided.

The address of welcome was made by R. I. Neal, of the chamber of commerce, and the response by Rev. W. D. Hamman, of Coleman, Ga.

During the afternoon a farm tour was made through Bibb county, under the direction of D. F. Bruce, county agent.

The Georgia State College of Agriculture, with the cooperation of the American Railway Express company, is making a very careful survey of the ripening period of various truck and vegetable crops throughout the length and breadth of the state, Dr. T. H. McElm, horticulturist of the college, declared in a speech before the society.

Within a year or so, he said, the college and express agencies working jointly "hope to have something of extreme value to the state."

Prospects of Plan.

Georgia, possessing its great variety of soils and climates, is well adapted to the production of all kinds of vegetables and truck, he said, and because of the state's strategic location her markets may be found both north and south, easily available in both directions.

"Open on a profitable basis to the farmer who understands the game and takes intelligent advantage of the opportunities that nature has placed at his disposal."

It is well for us to define the meaning of farm truck," Dr. McElm thought. "I do not take it that this discussion is intended for those who make a business of vegetable growing, but it is for the consideration of the farmer who desires to use some of his surplus land in the production of some kind of truck crop. Unfortunately, when a crop of this kind is a side line, it is quite apt to be unprofitable. Should it develop into a profitable enterprise there is a tendency for it to become a main line of endeavor."

Praises Home Gardens.

Raising a number of questions in connection with the planting, growing and raising of the larger truck areas, Dr. McElm emphasized the importance of the home garden and declared it as his belief that every farmer's income should be materially increased through his garden. He said it was undoubtedly true that no one acre of land will return such a profit as that devoted to the production of vegetables for home use.

"We should realize that the man who is responsible for the procurement of food for the family should look upon the garden as one of his special responsibilities. It should not be turned over to the hard working housewife or the unstable school boy, but should have the best attention of the farmer himself."

"From a truck standpoint, Georgia needs certain things. First, knowledge of the best methods of culture and, beyond this, a willingness to practice what is known to be correct in order that a more standardized product can be produced," he explained. "The marketing of truck is a hazardous matter at best. It is dependent upon standardization of product and thorough cooperation of growers in producing and in selling. Our aim should be to build up a reputation for a high-class product so that markets can always expect from this state a steady production of a given commodity at a definite season of the year."

National G. O. P.
To Leave Georgia
Factions Alone

Washington, August 1.—(United News.)—The republican national committee probably will not intervene in the controversy between two factions of republican presidential electors in Georgia, it was learned at party headquarters here today.

The dispute in Georgia is between Roscoe Pickett, former chairman of the republican state central committee, and Ben J. Davis, former republican national committeeman. Meetings of the state central committee to select presidential electors have been called by both, and each has questioned the other's right to call such a meeting.

"It is an internal fight and entirely outside the jurisdiction of the national committee," said one of Chairman Work's advisors.

EFFINGHAM COUNTY
ORGANIZES FIRST
ANTI-SMITH CLUB

Springfield, Ga., August 1.—(AP)—The first "anti-Smith" county club in Georgia was organized here today under the name of "Independent Democrats" with about 200 voters of Effingham county in attendance.

The meeting endorsed the presidential candidacy of Herbert Hoover and was urged by S. H. Morgan, former state senator, to go to the polls and vote for the republican presidential nominee.

Morgan said he had resigned from the democratic state executive committee immediately after the Houston convention. He urged the voters not to adopt a stay at home policy in their opposing Governor Al Smith, but to go to the polls and vote for Mr. Hoover.

Like other speakers, he devoted the major part of his address to Tammany Hall, which he termed "undemocratic."

In the midst of the meeting a telegram was received from Sumterville, Ga., signed by the Chattooga County Anti-Smith club, in which the Effingham organization was urged to send four delegates to a state convention in Macon on September 19.

The chairman explained that at this meeting electors will be nominated for the presidential election.

Clarence T. Guyton, an attorney, called the meeting to order and presided. In a bitter address he charged Tammany Hall had fought every democratic presidential candidate, including Cleveland and Wilson, and declared "Effingham county and the south is against Al Smith for the presidency."

Rev. A. T. Autrey, pastor of the Christian church of Guyton, opened the meeting with prayer. It continued in session two hours.

POLICE QUIZ TWO
ABOUT YALE DEATH

New York, August 1.—(AP)—Two women—dark and pretty and with the demeanor of actresses—were questioned by police today in a revived inquiry into the killing a month ago of Frankie Yale, Brooklyn gang leader.

Before and after the examination in the Kings county district attorney's office the women were guarded closely from the questions of newspapermen and authorities and were flatly told to say who the women were or what they had revealed.

Meager information at the district attorney's office indicated the women were located on a tip given by Parker A. Henderson, Jr., son of a former mayor of Miami, Fla., who came to New York a few days ago after fleeing in Miami that he had recently purchased 12 guns for "Scarface" Al Capone, Chicago gangster.

Police said they have identified the guns with which Yale was shot from an automobile on a Brooklyn street, as coming from Capone's collection. Authorities said Capone and Yale both had been associates.

6TH DISTRICT A. AND M.
BARN RAZED BY FIRE

Barnesville, Ga., August 1.—A fire of unknown origin destroyed the Sixth District A. and M. barn and contents early Wednesday. It was partially covered by insurance. Professor Felix White, head of the department of agriculture of the college, estimated the loss to be at least $15,000. All of the stock was saved.

The barn, made of stucco, was considered one of the best and largest in the state. It contained at the time it caught, besides a lot of equipment, 10 tons of hay, 100 bushels of rye, 100 bushels of oats, 300 bushels of wheat, four tons of fertilizer and the contents were estimated at $5,000.

FAIR, HOT WEATHER
AIDS HANCOCK CROPS

Sparta, Ga., August 1.—The farmers of Hancock county are greatly encouraged over crop prospects during the past week since the weather has been clear most of the time and they have been given an opportunity to get the grass out of the fields. The hot sunshine has put all crops to growing, especially the cotton, which has been suffering for several weeks on account of the incessant rainfall. The boll weevil is not as prevalent as first reported and indications point

ASHEVILLE SOCIETY
PLANS BIG BENEFIT

Asheville, N. C., August 1.—(Special.)—A week of entertaining night club programs by the best professional entertainers in the country will be presented in Asheville nightly beginning Monday for the benefit of the Biltmore hospital here. The entertainment is sponsored by leaders in social and welfare circles in order to secure funds for enlarging the charity wards of the hospital.

A special night club show is being secured from Chicago and New York, and headlines on the program will include Florry Johnson, brother of the famous Al; the Zouette Sisters, extraordinary dancers, and the Silver Slipper Girls, dancers from the well-known night club of that name in New York.

The entertainments, along with elaborate dinners and society functions, will be held in the Kennelworth Inn, two shows being presented every evening, and a special space being reserved for dancing. The event is being directed by Mrs. F. C. Gerry, Mrs. J. F. A. Cecil and Mrs. D. B. Morgan, who organized the Biltmore Hospital Beneficial society.

Visitors from many other cities throughout the south are expected to be present at the affair, and the fact that the week of the sixth is also grand opera week in Asheville is expected to draw even a larger crowd than would ordinarily be attracted.

Summer Skies
To Cover City;
Rains Distant

More real summer weather, with clear skies and 80 to 90 degree temperatures, is forecast for today by C. F. von Herrmann, United States meteorologist. The high pressure area which traveled from the Ohio valley to the Atlantic states several days ago is still over the Carolinas and Georgia and remains in charge of the weather situation here, the weather bureau said.

There is no prospect of rain within the next few days, so far as could be ascertained from the precipitation on 14 rainy days, with the greatest amount during a 24-hour period recorded as 3.99 inches on the 9th and 10th. This precipitation did not break a record, however, the greatest amount during 24 hours to date was 5.56 inches in July of 1908.

The temperature during July recorded 7 of a degree above the normal with a mean of 78.8 for the month. The highest temperature of the month was 93 degrees on the 4th and the lowest was 68 degrees on the 6th. July has had as high as 101 degrees, in 1925, and as low as 68 degrees in 1930.

There were seven clear days, 14 partly cloudy and 10 cloudy. There were 15 days with thunderstorms.

MAIL CARRIER HURT
WHEN CAR LEAVES ROAD

Forsyth, Ga., August 1.—Fred R. Stokes, R. F. D. mail carrier, was injured by a broken and badly lacerated arm and other injuries about four miles from Forsyth, near Fairview church, when his car left the road and ran into an embankment.

He was returning to Forsyth from his route, driving with one hand and looking over some mail when the accident occurred. He was brought to town, after rescue from his pinned position, where he received medical attention. It is not yet known whether he received any internal injuries. The car was only slightly damaged as it brushed the side of an embankment. Mr. Stokes' arm was caught between the car and the embankment.

To a fair crop now if the weather is cool next month. The red lands in the county show some improvement, however, than the sandy sections, as they have been able to stand more rain.

HANCOCK COUNTY
SENTIMENT FAVORS
ROAD BOND ISSUE

Sparta, Ga., August 1.—(Special.) Alex S. Chamlee, candidate for governor, yesterday expressed himself as highly in favor of a state bond issue for building roads. This plank in his platform has met with great favor in this county. The people here are satisfied that bonds must be voted before the roads of the state are paved and it is expected Mr. Chamlee will have many supporters on account of his position in this matter, besides his other views.

Extensive Air Mail Campaign Follows Postage Reduction

Chicago, August 1.—(AP)—An extensive air mail campaign, sponsored by 50 business and civic organizations in Chicago, was launched today, on the occasion of the reduction of air mail postage rates throughout the United States.

The drive will be an attempt to educate the public to use the service, it was explained.

A LOVELY SKIN
THAT MAKE-UP
CANNOT HARM

If you use powder and rouge make sure you remove it. Specialists urge this oil of palm-and-olive soap method

BEAUTY experts warn, not against rouge and make-up, but against the way most women are removing them.

Powder, dust and rouge enter the skin pores and with the natural oils harden into tiny masses. When left they cause blackheads and blemishes.

Now you may employ rare olive oil combined with the finest oil of palm in a true complexion soap—soap made for one purpose only; to safeguard that schoolgirl complexion. This famous soap is called Palmolive.

To retain natural loveliness—to make skin bloom with radiant freshness—do this each morning and night.

For two minutes massage Palmolive lather gently into the skin with your two hands. Let it penetrate and cleanse each pore. Then rinse thoroughly, first with warm water, then with cold. Dry by patting with a soft towel.

Get genuine Palmolive, that's the important thing—10c. The Palmolive-Peet Company, Chicago, Illinois.

TALMADGE HITS 'MACHINE' ATTACK

Eugene Talmadge, commissioner of agriculture and candidate for nomination and reelection to that office, Wednesday answered the attacks of G. C. Adams, candidate opposing Mr. Talmadge in the September 12 primary, with a statement that identically the same issues involved in the last campaign against a political machine that has dominated the department were involved in the present campaign.

Mr. Talmadge charged that the machine then turned out of office by an overwhelming majority is now using Mr. Adams as a cat's paw to ride back into office.

Defending himself against the attack that he is attempting to perpetuate himself in office through the construction of a political machine in his department, he also denied charges of extravagance and waste made by Mr. Adams and that he cost $3,550 more for the first six months of this year than his predecessor spent for the same period the corresponding year.

Mr. Talmadge declared his campaign two years ago cost him more money than he was able to spend and said he still owes about $1,000 for these campaign expenses.

Talmadge Statement.
Commissioner Talmadge's statement in full is as follows:

"To the People of Georgia:
"Two years ago I routed and overthrew the most powerful combination of political machinery ever known in the history of Georgia. In fact the political machine that you overthrew in Georgia was known over the nation. Its existence did not reflect credit on the state. This vast army of political job holders that you routed retired temporarily, but before I went into office they were back on the job and trying their best to get me to break my promise to the people and retain them in office. This does not apply to all of the appointees of the former administration, but it does apply to at least 90 per cent of them.

"During the hot campaign two years ago my opponent made the boast that whether elected or defeated he would name the employees of the department of agriculture for the next two years. In answer to this boast I made to the people of Georgia, who were looking for and expecting nothing from the government but a square deal, the promise that the appointees of my opponent would not serve one day after I went into office. If I had broken faith with the people the same aggregation that is now opposing me would be on the pay roll of the state and would be singing my praises.

"Fred T. Bridges, who is well known over the state as a lobbyist, is chief lieutenant of this machine. He is now being waged against me.

"A good many statements have appeared in the press saying that the reason they were opposing me was due to the fact that I was seeking to build up a more powerful machine than you overthrew two years ago. Let's see, is this statement correct?

"I addressed a written communication to the governor of Georgia and the general assembly when I went into office asking that they cut out at least 200 jobs to which appointments were formerly made by the commissioner of agriculture. This was done. The number fell from 200 to 6. Is this the way to build up a political machine?

"A good deal of propaganda is going about to the effect that I spent $3,550 more in the first six months of this year than was expended by my predecessor in the first six months of 1927. Let's see, is this correct?

"The expenditures of the department of agriculture, exclusive of oil inspection, from January 1, 1927, to June 25, 1927, were $203,566.88. The total expenditure for the department of agriculture, exclusive of tubercular inspection and fruit inspection, from January 1, 1928, to July 1, 1928, were $171,978.08, showing a saving to the state of $31,588.80.

"These figures do not include the expense of oil inspection for this period. For the reason that the oil inspection has been taken out of the department of agriculture and has been reduced to only six oil inspectors, and the work is now handled in the department of the comptroller general.

"You will remember that the 'oil boys' were one of the chief topics of conversation during the campaign that you so bravely rallied to two years ago. Oil inspection from January 1, 1927, until I went into office on June 25, 1927, cost the state of Georgia $75,972.87. Add this to the amount stated above of $31,588.80 which was the gross amount saved by the department during the first six months of this year as compared with the first five months and 25 days of last year and you have a total of $106,660.77 less than the department of agriculture cost the people the first six months of this year as compared to the five months and 25 days of 1927 before I went into office.

New Activities.
"The last legislature placed on the department of agriculture two new activities, which the department had never had before. One was tubercular inspection, that is, testing cattle for tuberculosis over the state of Georgia, which is now being done. Another was fruit inspection covered by the peach and apple standardization bill. The carrying out of these two new activities has added materially to the duties of the commissioner of agriculture and have cost the state this year $3,553.35, which expense is not figured in the above amount as there were no comparative figures on these new activities. Even if this expense that my predecessor did not have is counted we still have a net saving to

HARDMAN POINTS TO RECORD IN RACE FOR REELECTION

Governor L. G. Hardman is making his race for reelection on his record, it was announced Wednesday in a statement issued by C. E. Bennis, publicity director of the Hardman campaign.

It was announced that the governor pledges himself to "continue to do right as he sees it" if reelected.

It was stated that the governor is "not a politician" but will give the state a business administration.

"Governor Hardman's recommendations for appointments were made without regard to political expediency," it was stated.

The statement declared further that "it is indeed fortunate for Georgia that the governor is not a politician."

RACING BACKWARD IN AUTO, 'RUNNER' ELUDE OFFICERS

Blocked by county police, a runner early Wednesday backed his car at racing speed for half a mile along Mount Vernon highway, eluding officers who pursued him on foot, but abandoning his machine and 173 gallons of corn whiskey when a crash resulted with an automobile driven by Otis Wood, of Alpharetta.

Wood had been unable to elude the whisky laden automobile as it careened upon him in reverse. The run driver took to his heels after the impact, and has not been apprehended.

The officers were Lieutenant A. T. Butler and Policemen Claude Webb and W. G. Patrick.

BALTIMORE SURETY FIRM OPENS OFFICE

The Fidelity and Deposit company of Baltimore, one of the largest surety bond underwriters in the country, has opened its new branch office at 405 Hime-Howell building in this city.

Fred L. Nesbitt, who for the past three years has been southern supervisor for the company, is in charge of the office and Ashby C. Taylor, who has had connections in Atlanta in the insurance business for some time, is his assistant.

Hans & Howell, one of the largest insurance firms in the southeast, has long been the Georgia agent for the Fidelity and Deposit company, and will retain that status, remaining in charge of the entire state with the exception of the cities of Macon and Savannah. Other territory in charge of the new branch office, in addition to the cities named, includes northern Alabama and Florida with the exception of Tampa.

The state, exclusive of oil inspection, $23,004.55.

"The above figures represent comparative costs of the same division of the department of agriculture which were operated during the first six months of this year under my administration and the five months and 25 days of 1927 before I went into office.

"Two years ago I promised you that if elected I would enforce the fertilizer laws and seek the passage of still better laws. This promise I have done my best to fulfill and have found that a great deal of the fertilizer sold in the state did not comply with the law and this was costing the farmers of Georgia millions of dollars annually.

"The son of my opponent who is in charge of a fertilizer manufacturing plant was one who deliberately refused to comply with the provisions of the fertilizer laws and it became necessary for me to require him to pay a fine into the school fund of the state in order to force obedience to these laws.

"There is another thing that I wish to call to your attention:
"From January 1 to June 25, 1927, the department of agriculture took 5,200 samples of fertilizer with its fertilizer inspectors. From January 1 to July 1, 1928, the fertilizer inspectors operating under the department of agriculture took 12,600 samples of fertilizer. The chemical laboratory from January 1, 1927, to June 25, 1927, analyzed 3,700 samples of fertilizer. The chemical laboratory from January 1, 1928, to July 1, 1928, analyzed 6,500 samples of fertilizer. You will see an increase here of 2,800 samples of fertilizer covering the comparative periods with the exception of the five months and 25 days of the other administration went out of office on June 25, 1927. The cost per fertilizer sample taken by the inspectors from January 1 to June 25, 1927, was $11.03. The cost per fertilizer sample taken by the inspectors from January 1 to July 1, 1928, was $4.74. The laboratory cost for analyzing these fertilizer samples from January 1 to June 25, 1927, was $1.75 per sample. The laboratory cost this year from January 1 to July 1 for analyzing these fertilizer samples was $1.54 per sample. The total cost of both taking and analyzing the fertilizer samples last year from January 1 to June 25 was $12.78 per sample. This year from January 1 to July 1 the total cost of taking and analyzing the fertilizer samples was $6.28 per sample.

"Listen to this, brother farmer, this present administration you on each sample of fertilizer taken by an inspector and analyzed in the state laboratory $6.48 per sample.

"State Rocked" by Campaign.
"If any citizen of the state doubts a single statement in this article I respectfully ask him to write to the state auditor, Honorable Sam J. Slater, and ask him to verify them from the public records in this office, from which they were taken.

"I don't claim the entire credit for the accomplishment of the above. I think the campaign of two years ago was largely responsible for it. That campaign rocked Georgia as she had never been rocked before. Don't turn about face and break the vase to kill the fly. Of course, any man you elect to office will make mistakes. I have made them, being human I will continue to make them. You know I am telling the truth when I say it. I will make you another promise—as long as I am commissioner of agriculture of Georgia it shall be my aim to make as few mistakes as possible and when they are made it will be a mistake of the head and not of the heart.

"The campaign which we waged two years ago cost me more money than I was able to spend. I am owing a little over $1,000 of it now. I am paying it back as fast as I can. The money that I put into the campaign two years ago was dug out of the ground, it was farm money. I won't be able to finance an expensive campaign this year. It is not right for me to accept campaign contributions from corporations whose interests I have to pass upon. It is not right for me to assess my employees for campaign contributions. I am not going to do either.

"I have an abiding faith in the common sense of the people of Georgia.

"EUGENE TALMADGE,

TENNESSEE GOES TO POLLS TODAY

Memphis, Tenn., August 1.—(United Press.)—Democrats and republicans of Tennessee will choose their candidates for state offices Thursday after one of the warmest political campaigns in years. The general election to county offices will be held at the same time.

Candidates for various nominations closed their campaigns tonight with final rallies and an unusually large number of voters are expected to turn out Thursday because of the intense interest in the campaigns.

On the democratic ticket, United States Senator Kenneth D. McKellar is a candidate for his party's renomination. He is opposed by Representative Finis J. Garrett, George L. Case and John R. Neal, chief defense counsel in the Scopes trial three years ago.

Governor Henry H. Horton is seeking renomination as democratic candidate for governor and is opposed by Hill McAlister, former state treasurer, and Lewis S. Pope, D. W. Dodson's name also will appear on the ballot, but he was ruled ineligible to hold office by the state executive committee when he failed to republish campaign expenditures on the last date required by law.

James A. Fowler, mayor of Knoxville, is unopposed for the republican nomination for United States senator, but three are running in the party race for governor. They are Judge J. T. Raulston, who presided at the Scopes trial; R. S. Hopkins and Lou A. Scott.

Congressional representatives, national committeemen, and public utility commissioners also will be chosen.

EQUALITY IN PACTS SOUGHT BY CHINA

San Francisco, August 1.—(United Press.)—Dr. C. C. Wu, special representative of the nationalist government in China to the United States, expressed the hope here today that new treaties would be negotiated between his country and the United States "on a footing of equality and mutual respect."

Hope for Manchuria.

Concerning Manchuria, Dr. Wu said in a statement to the Associated Press: "I understand that Chang Hsueh-liang (new governor of Manchuria) is ready and willing to subject himself to the nationalist government in China. The Japanese government is preventing him from so doing. This is a flagrant instance of an interference in China's internal politics."

Dr. Wu, one of the nationalist government's commissioners to the principal governments of the world to "obtain new treaties on a footing of equality and mutual respect," said:

"The Chinese people and the Chinese governments have received with a great demonstration of warmth and cordiality the latest step taken by the American government, namely the negotiation of a treaty restoring to China tariff autonomy."

This step is in accord with America's traditional liberal policy in China and it is one more bond in the friendship between the two countries. "I hope that the United States government will not stop short at this but will go the full length in the abrogation of the old treaties between China and America as stated in Section 1 of the Kellogg declaration of January, 1927, and negotiate new treaties between the two countries on a footing of equality and mutual respect."

New Five-Cent Air Mail Postage Rate Formally Inaugurated at Candler Field

Here is the largest letter ever sent from Atlanta by air mail. It is held at the right by Postmaster E. K. Larkie, who sent the message to his chief, Postmaster General Harry S. New, and on the left by Mr. Larkie's daughter, Miss Mary Larkie.

The new five-cent postage rate for the first ounce of air mail was formally inaugurated Wednesday night when the northbound planes left Candler field with the largest and the thickest letter ever sent from Atlanta by air mail, together with an exhibition of Georgia manufactured products destined for a showing in New York city by the Georgia society and the Merchants association.

The largest letter was sent by Postmaster E. K. Larkie to Postmaster General Harry S. New, and read as follows: "By first flight from Atlanta under the new postage rate inaugurated this date, permit me to extend greetings and congratulations. The new air mail rate instituted by you of five cents for the first ounce and 10 cents each additional, I believe will prove of great benefit to aviation, to the patrons, and to pioneer contractors."

The thickest letter was sent by Miss Helen Faulkner, nine-year-old daughter of Ben Faulkner, Atlanta operation manager of Pitcairn Aviation, Inc., to Harold F. Pitcairn, president of the National Aeronautics Association, and read as follows: "By first flight from Atlanta under the new postage rate inaugurated this date,

The exhibit of Georgia products was posted at Candler field Wednesday in the presence of Governor L. G. Hardman, Mayor I. N. Ragdale, Postmaster Larkie, R. S. ## STRIKE 'RIOTERS' FREE UNDER BOND

New Bedford, Mass., August 1.—(United Press.)—Release under bonds from the House of Correction here of a majority of 240 strike pickets, convicted of rioting, was the chief event of interest to participants in the textile strike today.

Examination of sureties was started this afternoon by Walter R. Mitchell, clerk of third district court, and his staff. Hours before the process began lines of relatives and friends drew up before the jail office awaiting entrance to provide the necessary bonds. Bail ranged from $500 to $1,500.

Leader Gets Bail.

Among the first to be released was August C. G. Pinto of this city, a leader of the strikers, who has been arrested 10 times since the strike started 16 weeks ago.

The prisoners had been sentenced to terms ranging from two to six months. All appealed. They had waived examination and pleaded not guilty. They were arrested in demonstrations at mill gates and at police headquarters last Monday night when national guardsmen and police from Fall River were called on to assist local police.

Picketing at Minimum.

Because of the enormous paper work involved in the arraignment of the pickets, court sessions could not begin the bail proceedings until today. All of the convicted pickets were arraigned with the textile mill committee, the so-called radical element.

Picketing at the mill gates was at a minimum today. The usual strong lines were cut down to a few pickets in most instances, with the largest number, about 200, at the Whitman mill. Absence of their leaders, who were among those confined at the House of Correction, was given as the reason. All lines dispersed when police details arrived.

TORAL MAINTAINS HIS CRIME WAS UNAIDED

Mexico City, August 1.—(United Press.)—Government prosecuting officers began the study tonight of the evidence presented in the preliminary trial of Jose de Leon Toral, assassin of President-elect Obregon, to see if indictments of others are to be asked in connection with the assassination, and when Toral's formal trial will be called.

Throughout today Toral remained in his cell. He had no one else with him in his intention to kill General Obregon. Finally, although the investigation has not yet been completed, the theory that others were concerned in the preliminary trial was adjourned. Toral taken back to his cell in the San Angel jail.

LIBERIA PRESIDENT APPOINTS LOOMIS FINANCIAL ADVISER

LABOR TO DECIDE ON CHOICE TODAY

Atlantic City, N. J., August 1.—(United Press.)—Having disposed of much of its routine business, the executive committee of the American Federation of Labor today prepared the way for the presentation of the report of the organization's non-partisan political committee.

While there was still much speculation and discussion by the members of the council concerning the attitude which the federation would take toward the presidential candidates, no one would venture to predict whether Hoover or Smith, or either, would receive the endorsement of the organization.

Depends on Platforms.

William Green, president of the federation, indicated, however, in his statements that the action of the council depended on the platforms of the party platforms by the candidates.

In discussing with newspapermen the published reports that Governor Smith had approved the labor plank in the democratic platform before it was adopted, which plank were considered by labor as unfavorable to them, Mr. Green stated that "a political platform was a very general thing."

He added that "the personal views of the candidates can make it mean an entirely different thing."

According to the schedule outlined by the council at its first meeting yesterday, much of the business was cleared up today. In addition to discussing an application for a charter which had been received from the sleeping car porters, the executive committee approved a message of condolence which President Green, as president of the Pan-American Federation of Labor, had sent to President Calles, of Mexico, on the assassination of President-elect Obregon.

Mr. Green declared that the results of the council's application had been deferred until a later meeting of the council.

Smith Conference Included.

When the report of the non-partisan committee is read tomorrow, Mr. Green stated, it will contain the results of his recent conference with Governor Smith. The conference, it was understood, was the result of a plank in the democratic platform which did not clearly enough define the use of the injunction in labor disputes.

Mr. Green declared that the injunction question was foremost in the minds of the council, because of the fact that its use had been "vicious" on several occasions.

He explained that labor sought legislation which would make possible the issuance of orders to prevent the normal functions of a striking body. These normal functions included picketing, the holding of meetings and the use of free speech, he said.

In addition, it was hoped that legislation would be passed that would make it possible for labor to sue by equity courts of so-called "yellow dog contracts," the president said. These contracts, according to Mr. Green, are made by employers upon employees and leave the latter with no equity whatsoever.

The council will meet with architects and sculptors this week to discuss a memorial to be erected in memory of Samuel Gompers. An appeal for funds to finance the memorial, which will be erected in Washington, will be made to the federation membership in January, it was announced.

Stephens said his suspicions were aroused by the Pennsylvania's actions and "I grabbed his arm in order to detain him until the police could investigate."

TAMPA MAN HELD ON MURDER CHARGE

Tampa, Fla., August 1.—(United Press.)—Jack Stephens, 71, former deputy sheriff, who fatally wounded Charles Conley, 32, of Pittsburgh, Pa., yesterday, was formally charged today with first-degree murder. He was arrested yesterday after Conley died in a local hospital.

Police officers reported that Stephens said he shot the man when Conley tried to get away from him. Conley had asked for clothing at Stephens' home, according to the police statement. Stephens said his suspicions were aroused by the Pennsylvania's actions and "I grabbed his arm in order to detain him until the police could investigate."

CONDEMNED MEN HEAR FATE TODAY

The state prison commission will not act until this morning on petitions for commutations of death sentences imposed on Clifford Thompson, white, and Jim Hugh Moss, negro, condemned to be electrocuted Friday following their conviction of killing Osborne Coleman, a Chatsworth merchant. It was announced by the commission that the record would be read Wednesday night and recommendations in the case would be submitted to the governor Thursday.

Final pleas will be made in behalf of the men Thursday before Governor Hardman after the recommendation of the commission is submitted to the governor. Unless the governor grants the commutations sought the two men will be electrocuted Friday.

Mrs. Eula Elrod Thompson, also convicted in the case and given the death sentence, is confined in Fulton tower. In a farewell letter written to her husband Wednesday she denied that any of the three are guilty of the murder charge.

The prison commission Wednesday heard pleas in behalf of Thompson submitted by A. S. Johnson, Atlanta, his attorney. In the plea the attorney declared that the defendants had been convicted under circumstances almost amounting to "mob rule." He said they were not given time to confer with attorneys, that they were not given time to assemble witnesses and were "railroaded" to the electric chair. He declared that the defendants had been given a fair trial, without requisition papers and against their will. He charged further that one of the jurors who convicted Thompson was an ex-convict who had not had his citizenship restored.

Solicitor J. C. Mitchell, of Dalton, and Assistant Solicitor Noel Steed, of Chatsworth, presented arguments against a commutation of the death sentence. They contended that the defendants had received a fair trial, had been granted ample time to get their witnesses to the court room and in fact had presented the same defense witnesses at their trial as were presented six months later when Mrs. Thompson was tried. They urged the commission to decline to recommend clemency in the two cases.

COMMISSION DENIES WEIGHT INCREASES

The state public service commission Wednesday issued an order denying a petition of railroads of the state asking permission to increase the carload minimum weight on cement from 30,000 to 50,000 pounds.

Commissioner Perry T. Knight stated that, effective June 1, the commission had authorized the railroads to publish the same rates on cement between points in Georgia as had been authorized by the interstate commerce commission to apply interstate, predicated on a carload minimum weight of 50,000 pounds, but a large number of cement dealers in the small towns throughout the state petitioned the commission to prescribe rates predicated on a lower carload minimum weight, for the reason that it was impracticable for these small-town dealers to always carry in stock as much as 50,000 pounds of cement at one time, and, therefore, the commission prescribed another schedule of rates predicated on a carload minimum of 30,000 pounds.

Commissioner Knight stated that the railroads and large manufacturers of cement protested against the 30,000 pound minimum car weight and petitioned the commission to cancel it. It was pointed out by Commissioner Knight that the 50,000 pound minimum car weight is satisfactory to the dealers in the larger towns, but to confine the rates to this minimum was against the interests of the great majority of the dealers in the small towns.

THE GUMPS—THE PARTY DOES NOT ANSWER

The Taming of Elizabeth

By WINIFRED BOGGS

SYNOPSIS.

The young Elizabeth is the adored daughter of Tim and Elizabeth Darcy. When she is four years old she runs away from home to avoid punishment for getting into mischief. She is brought home promptly by a neighbor, Miss Smiley.

At 15 Elizabeth runs away again, this time from school and to the home of her Aunt Dolly, in London. Dolly who is almost as flighty as the young Elizabeth, sympathizes with her niece, much to the irritation of her stepson, Stephen Whitby. After the death of her parents, Elizabeth goes to live with her aunt. During the war they keep themselves busy and also amused by performing in amateur theatricals for the benefit of wounded soldiers. Stephen, home on leave, is asked by his stepmother to bring Mark Lennox, a young playwright, to one of their performances.

Shortly after the end of the war Mrs. Whitby dies suddenly in Brighton, and Elizabeth learns to her consternation that her aunt had frittered away the money left her by her husband, and had also disposed of some of Stephen's inheritance as well. Afraid to face Stephen after this revelation, Elizabeth decides to go to Mark Lennox, in London, and ask him to get her a job on the stage. Stephen finds her with Mark and, although his business has failed, he offers to help her. She refuses help and advice, and takes a train for London. On the opening night she gets stage fright and runs off leaving an understudy to take over her part. Miss Smiley, who happens to be in London visiting her cousin, Mrs. White, sees Elizabeth on the street and takes her to Mrs. White's house. The latter offers her a job as cook and Elizabeth accepts it. She finds a companion to her in the person of the faithful Julian Vestington, the old lady's grandnephew, makes all the arrangements with Elizabeth.

Stephen arranges with his cousin, William Whitby, to take over the management of the latter's business.

INSTALLMENT XXVIII. STEPHEN GETS A LONG LETTER.

Stephen had made Elizabeth promise to write, but he expected no more than a few curt lines, and was surprised to find quite a long letter from his ward. So she had written a post to him all about it? That was good. Had she found the post all she hoped? He could not have her tyrannized over by some old lady's whims and all joys save that of petty tyranny and making the most of that. Then he smiled. The thought of any old tartar trying to get the better of this young tartar, Elizabeth, was absurd. Youth always won at that game. Elizabeth would always look after herself and a bit over. It was the old lady who would need his sympathy, for Elizabeth was out to get all and give nothing.

"Dear Stephen" (he read) "I thought I would let you know that I was right and you were wrong—it's simply a splendid post, nothing to do, and the dearest, loveliest, kindest and most affectionate old lady. I wish you could see her, she's such a picture, and white and plump like a young girl and so full of vitality. We took to each other at once and she makes an awful fuss of me and spoils me. The country is rather ugly but the house is nice, and I have a very big bedroom with a communicating door opening into Mrs. Vestington's. It's rather old-fashioned, but quite comfortable, though there's one big bar across the top of the window I wish they would take down, as it prevents you opening the windows (which open inwards) as wide as I like."

"However, I really get lots of fresh air just the same so that's a detail. O, the food we have here, simply wonderful, and Mrs. Vestington wanting to simply stuff me. She says young girls ought to eat a lot; it stops them being nervous. And wine and fruit, home-grown peaches, cream—everything you can think of. I was quite nervous about my figure at first, but funny enough it doesn't make me fat. I don't think it really agrees with me, for this place is relaxing—at least, I find it so—it seems to take away my energy more than give me extra. After dinner we sit up late talking and reading, and find we have a lot in common and are real companions and friends. At first I could not quite get accustomed to it, but now I manage quite well, and I suppose most of us do waste too much time in sleep. I don't think she was pleased when I found out quite by chance that this house was once an asylum, and that some of these very old servants were engaged there years back. It was through what the old butler, whose name is Stevens, said to Brown, the gardener, that I learnt that, and Mrs. Vestington was sharp to them about it. She says it's the people who live in a house in the present that matter, not the people who lived there years ago, and, of course, she is right. Still, I can't help wishing it had not been an asylum, because whenever I see the high walls—which are all around us—I have to think of it and the poor creatures imprisoned here. It belonged to a doctor who had private patients in it. Then something dreadful happened—I don't know what for Mrs. Vestington doesn't like talking about it—and he ran away abroad. Then Mrs. Vestington came up to them. "Come along, Elizabeth, we will have a stroll in the sun, and then later you can read the papers to me." She slipped her hand within the girl's arm, smiling up into her face. "She makes a positive idol of me," thought Elizabeth, "and I'm just a paid companion. How ungrateful those others must have been. I am lucky!" Yet she sighed. After all, nothing was quite perfect. She had been at Mount Grange for a week, been spoiled and indulged and fed on all the luxuries of the season, but she had not been outside the grounds nor seen any other living soul save the old people who surrounded her. Two of the birds had died and Brown had caught others in the traps he set, clipped the wings of a couple and handed them over to a lifelong captivity. He had rung the necks of the others and Elizabeth, shuddering at sight of the act, could not but feel that perhaps these were luckier than their fellows, that made life bearable. Except for a few brief hours of the night she had never been alone for half an hour, and, oddly enough, though a sociable soul, she was quite longing for an hour of her own company."

Gay Social Affairs Mark Final Month of Summer

August, always the busiest part of the summer season, will be a month of sports, dances, entertainments and numerous other activities, most of which have already been announced. Throughout the summer Thursday has proven a most popular day, socially speaking. Advance reservations for dinner at the Druid Hills Golf club, Capital City club and Piedmont Driving club for this evening bespeak many congenial groups to assemble this evening on the terraces and roof of these three fashionable social clubs.

Among the informal social events planned today for the younger social contingent is the swimming party at which Mrs. C. K. Ayer will entertain at her summer home, "Ayrshire-on-the-Chattahoochee," in honor of a group of youthful visitors, including Miss Mary Jane Carthorne, of Tampa, Fla.; Miss Nell Denson, of Birmingham, Ala.; and Miss Mary Baumgarten, of New Orleans. This delightful aquatic event will be followed by a watermelon cutting and dancing.

Miss Baumgarten, of New Orleans, who is the guest of Miss Elizabeth Scott, will be the recipient of a luncheon party today at which Mrs. Earl Scott will be hostess, the guests to be entertained at a matinee party following the luncheon.

Mrs. Brooks Gives Lawn Supper.

Forsyth, Ga., August 1.—Mrs. R. P. Brooks, entertained at a lawn supper Friday evening at her beautiful home, "Brookly Villa," in Forsyth, Ga., in compliment to a group of prominent Atlanta women, who were her guests, including Mrs. W. E. Beckman, Mrs. M. E. White, Mrs. W. T. Hunnicutt, and Mrs. Wightman Bowden, and Mrs. T. E. Fletcher and Mrs. Thomas Nesbit, of Cordele, Ga. A group of close friends of the honor guests, who formerly resided in Forsyth, were invited for this informal occasion.

Mrs. Brooks was assisted in receiving by the honor guests and Mrs. E. D. Rudisill, Mrs. H. H. Hardin and Miss Mae Anderson. Supper was served under the trees at individual tables placed under large gay striped umbrellas at the left side of the handsome home.

Young Stripling Claims Heavyweight Boxing Championship

Macon Boxer Bases Claim On His Record

Has Victories Over Risko and Cook, Who Defeated Heeneey Twice.

Macon, Ga., August 1.—(United Press.)—Young Stripling, a heavy-weight, claims the world's heavyweight championship for his son without the bother of an elimination tournament. Stripling claimed the championship today on the strength of his son's record of 104 knockouts and the caliber of his opponents.

"My boy has beaten three of the leading contenders Johnny Risko, Tom Loughran and George Cook, and on that basis he is the successor to Tommy," "Pa" Stripling said.

"We are willing to fight anybody, anywhere, anytime and for any sum to prove the claim," he added.

Walk Miller, Atlanta promoter who managed the late "Tiger" Flowers, has had "Young Stripling" in his charge since he failed to give Paul Berlenbach a battle in New York two years ago. Previous to that "Pa" Stripling, assisted by "Ma," trained the boxer.

Stripling's Victims.

Among the leading fighters Stripling has stopped are Tommy Loughran, twice; Johnny Risko, twice; Mike McGinnis, Jimmy Slater, Jimmy Delaney, Chuck Wiggin, three times; George Cook, Bud Rojan, Jimmie Byrnes, Romero Rojas, and Leo Gates.

Until his escape with Berlenbach Stripling romped through southern sporting pages with much promise, but recently he has been content to let Miller "make him over" while he has spent his spare moments running his chain of restaurants and dabbling in aviation, his latest hobby.

He has engaged in 30 minor fights this year, and won all but two by knockouts. Those two were by easy decisions.

"Young" Stripling now is in New York, "Pa" said.

20 Pugs Rounded Up for Tournament

New York, August 1.—(AP)—The first block entry into the Richard's heavy-weight elimination tournament to find the successor to Gene Tunney, retired champion of the world, was made today by Jimmy Bronson, who offered Richard 20 heavyweights culled from every part of the country.

"The man who will win public recognition as Tunney's successor has never appeared in New York," Jimmy predicted to the promoter. "He may not be in my string, but I have three men from Texas who are down there as great fighters and three more from North Carolina. From out of the unknown somewhere will come a man who will whip the Risks, Sharkeys, Heeneys and Pauls who have failed so often."

Richard accepted the nomination of the 20 entries and asked only that Jimmy get more if possible.

McLarnin Favored In Fight Tonight

Detroit, August 1.—(AP)—Jimmy McLarnin, Pacific coast light-weight, and Stanislaus Loyza, Chilean fighter, went through the drying out process today, preliminary to their 10-round battle at the Olympia arena here tomorrow night. Both boxers wound up training yesterday and were pronounced in tip-top physical condition.

McLarnin, due to his remarkable record during the past year, married only by the setback at the hands of Champion Sammy Mandell, was established a favorite in the betting despite the large following of the hard punching and aggressive Loyza. About $10,000 worth of general admission tickets remain and will go on sale when the gates open tomorrow night.

Paddock Praises Canadian Runner After 2 Victories

Amsterdam, August 1.—(AP)—Charley Paddock, who ran his last Olympic race and possibly his last for all time this afternoon, paid high tribute to Percy Williams, young Canadian winner of both Olympic sprints.

"That boy doesn't run—he flies. He's a thoroughbred and a great competitor. I didn't have a thing left. I lost eight yards overnight. It must be age; my old kick isn't there," added Charley, who was eliminated in a semi-final heat won by Williams.

Bob McAllister, another American sprinting veteran, who saw Williams' victory from the press box, yelled, "at least I had the satisfaction of beating that fellow once. The flying cop led Williams in the 100 semi-finals Monday, but pulled a tendon and was last in the race."

The United States' 400-meter relay team was virtually decided upon today and consists of Henry Russell, Charley Borah, Jimmy Quinn and Frank Wykoff.

HEENEY BUSY ENJOYING SELF; TO SAIL SOON

New York, August 1.—(AP)—Tom Heeneey, the hard rock Gene Tunney splintered in the Yankee stadium last Thursday night, will sail for New Zealand late this month, but he'll be back. Just now Tom is busy counting out the parts of New York he missed during the strenuous training sessions that have been his lot during the past few months. He has his three brothers in tow, and they are in aviation, his latest hobby.

The bashful Anzac, not quite sure how the citizens would receive him after his disastrous evening with the heavy-weight champion, has kept in seclusion as much as possible. Most of the day he spends looking at tall buildings and the granite canyon of Manhattan, and the nights are devoted to playing and his beloved "movies."

Cuts Healed Up.

The cuts in his chin, cheeks and eyebrows have healed nicely. The scarcity of boats leaving Vancouver, B. C., for New Zealand has kept the Gishorne Gervill, narrowboat in New York. Plans to cross the country in time to catch a steamer to New Zealand have been abandoned, and he is planning for future action will hold him here until later in the month.

Canadian Star Wins Two Olympic Events

American Trackmen Experience Bad Day; Williams Is First in Two Races.

BY ALAN J. GOULD, Associated Press Sports Editor.

Olympic Stadium, Amsterdam, August 1.—Percy Williams, 19-year-old Canadian schoolboy, who was taken along just to keep peace in the Dominican athletic family, is now sprint champion of the world.

Flashing the same speed, the same remarkable stamina and the same spectacular sort of finish that gave him the 100-meter victory two days ago, the curly-haired youth from Vancouver staged a whirlwind sprint on a rain-soaked track to win the 200 meters from the best American, England and Germany could produce.

Williams, who was thought to have shot his bolt in the 100, came from behind in a closely bunched field to beat Walter Ranceley, of Great Britain, by a yard with Jackson Scholt, 1924 champion, and Helmut Koernig, German favorite, declared tied for third by the judges after a long debate.

Double Victory.

Williams, through his sensational sweep, registered the first Olympic sprint double since the American, Ralph Craig, turned the trick in 1912 and dealt another stunning blow to Uncle Sam's track men who were shut out in the dash for the first time in 20 years of Olympic competition.

To make the Americans' rout on the red-cinder Olympic oval worse, S. J. Atkinson, rangy Scotch-American, emerged from the pack in a spectacular 110-meter hurdle final to beat the American trio of Stephen Anderson, John Collier and Fred Pyle, and equal the world's record of 14.5 seconds.

Atkinson beat Anderson by inches in a dazzling finish after Collier, leading at the eighth hurdle, faltered together with G. S. Weightman-Smith, another South African, who had beaten the world's record yesterday only to finish fifth today.

On a rainy day which also saw Lloyd Hahn pass completely and dismally from the Olympic picture in the first 1,500-meter final, it took a series of brilliant performances by American stalwarts in the field to lift a portion of the gloom now shrouding the Yankee camp.

Sandlotters Guests Of The Constitution At Howard Today

Three sandlot baseball teams, at present leading the league, will watch Richard Dix in his last picture, "Warming Up," at the Howard this morning as guests of The Constitution and the Howard theater.

The lucky tenants are the Coker All-Stars, North Side Bulldogs and Kirkwood Cubs and in addition they will receive big league baseballs autographed by Dix himself.

This picture depicts the rise to fame of a rookie pitcher with the New York Yankees and aside from Dix, a good plot it is made highly interesting by sound effects and unusual photography. The teams will see the picture at the 11 o'clock performance.

NEW CHINESE REGIME TO SETTLE DEBTS

New York, August 1.—(AP)—Sun Fo, Chinese minister of reconstruction, today said the new nationalist government would assume full responsibility for the long list of public and private loans now in default and attempt to reach satisfactory adjustments.

Sun Fo, son of Dr. Sun Yat-sen, founder of the nationalist party and first president of China, is here to raise funds for the building of railroads in his country and to finance other important economic projects. He comes from a three months' visit in Europe, where he has been explaining to bankers there the new government's scheme for reconstruction.

He predicted serious trouble in the three northern provinces "unless Japan ceases any program she may have for annexing them." He said, however, that the nationalist government would welcome a chance to negotiate a settlement of Manchurian problems with Japan and was sure that China would agree to "any reasonable interpretation" of Japan's special position.

"Would that mean that Manchuria would be allowed to stand as Japan's sphere of influence?" he was asked. "It might amount to that," he said, "although we do not intend to countenance any kind of partitioning of China in the old sense. We would undertake to guarantee Japanese interests against interference but Japan would not be allowed to maintain troops in Manchuria or concern herself with civil government."

The greatest problem of China, he believes, is to decide on a permanent form of government. Nominally, he said, China was still a republic, but the successful revolt against the emperor in 1911, but there was considerable readjustment and partitioning needed to make it entirely successful.

He believes there must be a fundamental change in the activities of Christian missionaries, especially as it refers to foreign schools.

"China enjoys absolute freedom of worship," he said. "We do not care what faith or opinion is held by any church. But schools have been placed in a special category by Nanking. Education is one of our chief problems. We are very moderate in our attitude. We are not in the matter of missionaries in the matter of withdrawing schools must be withdrawn."
